

Virtual media space for interviews

Closing of African People' Summit on the EU-Africa Partnership

Dear Sir/Madam,

On 14th February the African People's Summit on the EU- Africa Partnership will be held online.

It will be a space for African civil society to discuss about some key priorities for Africans such as land justice and governance, agroecology, health and biodiversity, climate change.

At the end of the event, speakers will be available for personal interviews on Zoom between 17h and 18h:

- Michael Fakhri, UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Food
- Erika Mendes, Friends of the Earth Africa
- Fr. Chika Onyejiuwa, Executive Secretary, AEFJN
- Emmanuel Yap, Land Rights Officer, CIDSE
- Isabelle Manibem, Partnership Officer, CCFD-Terre Solidaire
- Markus Wolter, Agriculture and Food Policy Officer, Misereor
- Massa Koné, Spokesperson, CGLTE
- Lungisa Huna, Co-Director, RWA
- Hakim Baliraine, Chairperson, ESSAF

To arrange an interview on, please get in touch with: Fr. Chika Onyejiuwa, Executive Secretary of AEFJN: Executive Secretary execsecretary@aefjn.org

Journalists are also welcome to attend the People's summit (See the programme below). Registration and more information available here.

Programme (Brussels' time):

09.00 – 10.30: Opening Session

10.30 – 12.30: Land Justice and Governance

13.30 – 15.30: Agroecology for Sustainable Development

16.00 – 17.00: Closing Programme: Presentation of Declaration and Responses from AU, EU and UN Special Rapporteur on the Right to Food

17:00 - 18:00: Virtual Media Space

This event is co-organized by AEFJN, CICODEV, CGLTE, COPAGEN, ESAFF, FoE Africa, RWA and supported by other actors in Our land is Our Life platform (OLOL) and by other African and European Civil Society (including CIDSE) who have been actively advocating towards the EU-Africa partnership. The objective of the advocacy work has been to expose the failure of the EU-AU partnership process to provide adequate space for meaningful participation of communities, grassroots movements and CSOs.

This Media Space is co-founded by the European Union