Invitation to the Caritas Internationalis and CAFOD SB58 Side Event

Perspectives of Faith and Local actors on the New Joint Work on Agriculture and Food Systems

Overview

This side event aims to foster a platform for dialogue among governments, international organizations, and faith groups regarding the future of food and agriculture within the UNFCCC process. Participants will explore comprehensive approaches to tackling the challenges of agriculture and food security by establishing common grounds in the discussions on the governance and means of implementation of the Sharm el-Sheikh Joint Work on Agriculture.

SPEAKERS

- Representative of the African Group of Negotiators (AGN)
- Representative of the European Union (EU)
- Representative of the Food and Agriculture Organisation (FAO)
- Representative of the Catholic Development and Food Group
